

Ninebark

Physocarpus opulifolius (L.) Maxim.

Family:	Rosaceae
Habitat:	Woodland edges, rocky banks, shores
Color:	White
Height:	6-12 ft.
Exposure:	Full Sun to light shade
Bloom Dates:	May-June
Soil Moisture:	Average
Soil Quality:	Average
Garden Uses:	Shrub borders, screen, foundations. Fast-growing, insect and disease resistant, and drought-tolerant.
Notes:	Deciduous. Good foundation shrub. Attractive to bees and butterflies, and deer; drought-tolerant; Adaptive to many conditions; fast-growing; showy flowers.
USDA Plants Profile	http://plants.usda.gov/java/profile?symbol=PHOP