

Nodding Onion

Allium cernuum Roth

Family:	Liliaceae
Habitat:	Open woods, slopes, rocky soil, rock faces, shale barrens
Color:	Pink
Height:	6-8 in
Exposure:	Sun to part sun
Bloom Dates:	July
Soil Moisture:	Well-drained
Soil Quality:	Light
Garden Uses:	Rock gardens, front of flower borders in groups.
Notes:	May be naturalized in well-drained soil. Good in combination with green and gold, crested dwarf iris, blue-eyed grass, southern harebell.
USDA Plants Profile	http://plants.usda.gov/java/profile?symbol=ALCE2